

Marc Levinson, Principal, Independent School Solutions

MISBO - Interim Executive Director

Marc Levinson: Interim Executive Director, Mid-South Independent School Business Officers (MISBO) and Principal, Independent School Solutions has his own practice - consulting to independent schools primarily in the area of finance and operations. For the past four years Marc has been a Director with the National Business Officers Association. For the past two years Marc managed the live and web-based programs at NBOA. Additionally, he has been a presenter at nearly 100 state, regional, national and international conferences over the past four years. Prior to joining NBOA, Marc spent six years as the Business Manager at Alexander Dawson School (ADS) in Lafayette, Colorado. ADS is a coed day school with approximately 450 students in grades K-12 and sits on a 110 acre campus in east Boulder, County, CO. Prior to entering the Independent School world Marc spent three years as Director of Operations and Finance at Sounds True, a Spoken Word Audio Publishing company and three years in a similar position at Community Food Share, Boulder County's Food Bank. Much of his career has been in the food service industry, owning and operating a number of very successful restaurants in Boulder and Denver, as well as providing executive direction for a natural foods grocery store. Marc recently served as the Chair of the Finance Committee of the Board of Trustees of Watershed School. He holds a bachelor's degree in Political Science and a MBA (Organizational Development) from the University of Colorado at Boulder. Marc lives near Boulder, CO with his wife of nearly 25 years, a teacher and his daughter, a junior in high school.