

Yes, but did you know?

It's hard to find qualified skilled trades.

Yes, but did you know that Tradesmen provides flexible labor support for all trades, all skill levels on an as needed basis.

Costs have risen and my maintenance budget is the same or less.

Yes, but did you know Tradesmen can help you right-size your staff, subcontract less and still cover needs with significant cost savings.

Facilities maintenance work comes in waves that drown my staff.

Yes, but did you know that you can meet those challenges with flex-time trades people for a day or longer from Tradesmen.

I lost a key trades person, we were already short, and now I'm in a bind.

Yes, but did you know Tradesmen can provide a qualified person to fill the gap until you hire the right replacement.

Subcontractor hourly labor rates are out of control.

Yes, but did you know much of that work can be done in-house through using workers from Tradesmen at half or one-third the price.

One of my key tradespeople got hurt playing ball and I can't afford to sub-out to handle the work.

Yes, but did you know Tradesmen will provide you a qualified worker until your person can return.

We have too much work to keep up with preventative maintenance.

Yes, but did you know Tradesmen can provide people to flush hot water tanks, clear roof drains, change filters and all the other pm work.

My best workforce is aging out, I'm losing key people to higher paying options, and I can't find qualified, reliable replacements for months.

Yes, but did you know trades workers are available to fill the gap until you can hire a great replacement.

I have too many work orders and not enough trades people.

Yes, but did you know you can add people as needed to get you caught up through Tradesmen.

Subcontractors don't show up when we need them, they don't listen to what we want done and it's become challenging to find and afford a good one.

Yes, but did you know Tradesmen enables you to bring that work in-house through their flexible team, they work under your supervision, on the days you want, and their people come with a satisfaction guarantee.