Elf

Event idea:

Channel Buddy's love for the holidays and decorating into a Gingerbread House Decorating Contest! Have teachers and the principal serve as judges, and include different categories of winners like "Most Creative Use of Candy" and "Most Like Buddy."

Arthur Christmas

Event idea:

This movie features a wonderful message of "no child left behind." Take it to heart in your community by joining together to ensure every child experiences the wonders and joys of the holidays this year. You can have a suggested donation at the movie screening to raise funds for a local charity, or make the cost of admission a toy.

Dr. Seuss' How the Grinch Stole Christmas

Event idea:

Get into the holiday spirit by crafting Grinch ornaments before the show. Simply paint the inside of a clear ornament green then glue pieces of a green feather boa on the top and draw, or attach pre-made, faces. Or, feature a Whoville photo op with props like Whoville hair, bow ties, the Grinch's smile, antlers and more.

Frozen II

Event idea:

Enhance your showing with a fun craft that can double as a gift for a loved one! Ideas include DIY keepsake ornaments, jewelry, bookmarks and coasters.

The Santa Clause

Event idea:

Play Bingo-Ho-Ho during the screening. Include squares like “an elf appears” or “someone’s given a present” that students mark off once they occur on-screen. When someone has a bingo, have them ring a small bell so it’s less disruptive to those enjoying the film.

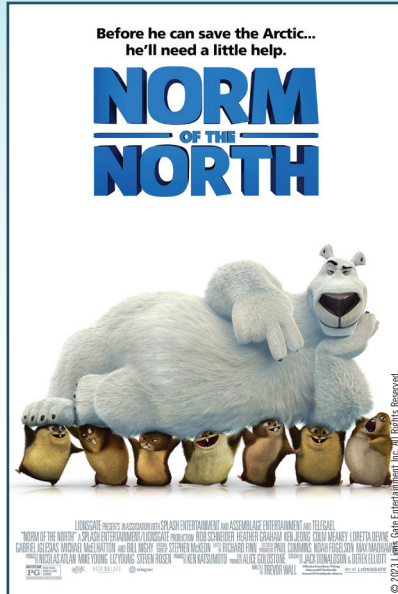

It's a Wonderful Life

Event idea:

It's never too early to get a head start on your holiday card! Create a themed photo booth filled with fun, festive props so families can snap a jolly pic or two.

Norm of the North

Event idea:

Before the show, challenge students or families to compete in a holiday-themed trivia competition! Make sure to feature a variety of categories, like holiday foods, gifting, carols, and more!

Abominable

Event idea:

Before the movie, have students and families decorate holiday cookies to gift or enjoy during the film! Include sprinkles, icing, and candies for attendees to get creative.

The Polar Express

Event idea:

It's not the holidays unless you hear some carols. Pair this classic holiday film with your school's holiday chorus concert to spread tidings of good cheer!

Little Women

Event idea:

Host a traditional Victorian tea party with a holiday theme, complete with delicate finger sandwiches, scones and an assortment of teas. Guests can dress in period costumes and play games from the era.
